

Good Morning, My name is _____ and Today
I am substituting for Mark Horner.

England's greatest treasure is it's buildings, but it's great heritage is crumbling away.

Do you appreciate the beauty and the tradition of Kent's historic houses? All buildings are affected by time and weather and need constant vigilance to keep them in the best condition.

Caring architects create enduring homes.
Commission Mark and he will design you a castle or a palace which will be enjoyed future generations – a house that you can feel proud of. You will see your dreams on paper and brought to life.

Speak to Mark Horner, and he will be the architect of our fabulous heritage.
