Dear James,

I write to say a big thank you for your usual excellent service.

No matter how large or small the job, you attend to it promptly and with consideration for my home. You leave no evidence of your having been there other than a job well done. The same can be said of your young assistant, obviously being trained in the right way.

When I hear of people who are requiring electrical services I have no hesitation in recommending you.

Thank you again for your usual superb service.

Kind regards

Anne Whybrow
