Dear Reader of this Testimony,

HARMONY BLINDS OF KENT

It is true: You can get cheap blinds on eBay ... that was my initial thought, but on close inspection, the quality didn't seem to be there.

The feedback on 'cheap blinds' is not good, not only that, but what happens if you measure it wrong?

What if the slats are all uneven and virtually transparent?
It's too late to send them back.

Robert will bring samples to your home and give free advice on what will work up against your windows.

We chose a really neat new concept in venetian blinds, where both controls are in the one wand (twist for close, pull string within the tube to raise/lower).

Check out the flush fitting mosquito netting that will fit to any door or window (patent pending), Robert in the UK Agent for this Canadian Invention. Highly recommended.

Your sincerely,

Gary Guillon Director
