Dear Reader of this Testimony,

STEPHEN HILL PARTNERSHIP (ACCOUNTANTS)

Tim knows his onions; well he knows how to count your onions for you or whether you should be buying onions in this current climate or not.

We delayed moving accountants for over 5 years, but in the end Tim helped us make the move very seamlessly.

Tim's technical chap really helped us upgrade Sage to a newer more efficient version of the software, which has made our lives so much easier.

We have every confidence in Tim and his team.

They offer an initial free consultation, so check them out and see if they are the right team for your business too.

Your sincerely,

Gary Guillon Director
